

Day to Serve: James River Cleanup

ASCE Richmond is participating in the Mid-Atlantic's Day to Serve movement by organizing a James River cleanup to help keep our parks clean and promote environmental stewardship! On October 10th, we will meet at Belle Isle to collect trash and debris and ASCE will provide all the necessary materials such as trash bags and gloves. Just make sure to bring close-toed shoes and a mask!

Who: All ASCE members/non-members and friends and family

Where: Meet at the Belle Isle Parking Lot on Tredegar St.

When: Saturday October 10th, 9:00am – 12:00pm

For more information, email Danielle Nielsen at dnielsen@jmt.com. We look forward to seeing you out there!

Disclaimer: To make sure that everyone stays safe, do not volunteer if:

You are sick or feeling unwell.

You have been near someone who is sick.

You have recently traveled abroad.

You have traveled to a highly impacted part of the U.S.

You are at higher risk for serious illness from COVID-19.

Remember: Even when volunteering, practice social distancing - do not shake hands or have any unnecessary physical contact.

Volunteers should dress appropriately for the weather and working conditions around the park. Closed-toe shoes are required, long pants and shirts are encouraged. Expect clothes and shoes to become dirty, possibly wet, depending on the conditions for the day. Volunteers should bring their own water bottles and gloves if you have them. Youth volunteers are the responsibility of the adult volunteers serving with them—please use your judgment when registering.

Important notice re COVID-19: Please note any interaction with the general public poses an elevated risk of being exposed to COVID-19 and we cannot guarantee that you will not be exposed while in attendance at the event. By registering for this event you attest that you meet the guidelines listed above and assume full responsibility for such participation and release ASCE from any illness or injury sustained as a result of this event.
